Thank you for your Freedom of Information request regarding the number of Polish children in school and in foster care. Antrim Borough Council does not hold the information you have requested as it does not fall under the Council's remit of responsibility (Councils in Northern Ireland have a much narrower remit than those on the mainland).

With regards to the number of Polish children in school, you may wish to direct your enquiry to the North Eastern Education and Library Board (NEELB). NEELB is the local education authority for most of County Antrim and the Eastern part of County Londonderry comprising the Local Government Districts of Antrim, Ballymena, Ballymoney, Carrickfergus, Coleraine, Larne, Magherafelt, Moyle and Newtownabbey. Contact details for the Freedom of Information Officer are as follows:
