

Economic Development Databases

Privacy Notice

We are collecting information from you for the purposes of maintaining our economic development databases in order to keep businesses informed of initiatives, improvements, events and the types of business support available locally. This is in accordance with Article 6(1)(e) of the General Data Protection Regulation as it is providing a support service for the performance of a public task undertaken by the Council.

Information collected may be shared with Council departments within Antrim and Newtownabbey Borough Council (ANBC) and will not be shared with third parties. Your data will not be transferred to countries outside the European Economic Area (EEA).

All information collected and processed may be subject to audit. The Council may also process the information for research purposes carried out in the public interest. All information will be held in accordance with the Council's retention and disposal schedule (see <http://www.antrimandnewtownabbey.gov.uk/Council>) and will be disposed of securely when no longer required. You have a number of rights with regard to data we hold on you – for further information see the Information Commissioner's website <https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-the-general-data-protection-regulation-gdpr/individual-rights/>

If at any point you believe the information we process on you is incorrect you can request to see this information and even have it corrected or deleted. If you wish to raise a complaint on how we have handled your personal data, you can contact our Data Protection Officer who will investigate the matter:
